

New screening results for dense plasma

N.J. Shaviv and G. Shaviv

Department of Physics and Asher Space Research Institute, Technion, Israel Institute of technology, Haifa, Israel 32000

Using molecular dynamics we calculate the screening correction to nuclear reactions in dense plasmas. The differences between the new results and the classical Salpeter theory are very significant. The connection with relaxation processes in the plasma is elaborated and it is shown how the screening is affected by the general relaxation of the plasma to equilibrium.